

Accommodating People with Disabilities

Course Outline – All Employees

Module	Learning Objectives	# of Configurable Pages
Introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Receive a brief introduction to the course content.	2
Protected Individuals	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify who is protected by disability laws.• Identify what qualifies as a current disability versus a past or perceived disability.• Define what it means to be a qualified individual living with a disability.	1
Reasonable Accommodations	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Define “reasonable accommodation”.• Identify the process required to provide reasonable accommodations.• Identify the limits of reasonable accommodations provided by an institution.• Define what qualifies an accommodation as “reasonable”.• Explain how to protect individuals’ privacy when determining and implementing reasonable accommodations.	2

Accommodating People with Disabilities

Course Outline – All Employees

Module

Learning Objectives

of Configurable Pages

Conclusion

- Receive a brief summary and conclusion of the course content.

8